STAY IN CONTROL OF YOUR RISKS AND TAKE THE RIGHT DECISIONS

Our monitoring services keep you informed of any changes in your business partner's situation. Timely alerts help to reduce credit risks and avoid problems with suppliers and customers. Stay in control of potential risks and improve your decision-making process with Coface Monitoring, our automatic early warning services.

Get notified before it is too late

Credit loss and delivery issues can cause severe damage to your business. But when you get the right information about your customers and business partners at the right time, you can avoid such issues and act ahead of events. Updates on first signs of financial problems and other important changes support you in taking the right decisions well in advance.

Monitoring your partners can be hard and difficult, especially when they are located in a different country. But with Coface Monitoring, it is really easy - we have the local experts that do the job for you. Choose from a wide range of monitoring criteria including credit rating, financial aspects, company vitals and many more. Tailor the features of your monitoring service to your individual business needs. Use your personal archive on our customer application InfoIcon, any time, wherever you want. Or get our notifications directly transferred into your ERP or CRM tools: just ask for our individual interface solutions.

Benefit from our extended country coverage of monitoring for companies located in Europe and the United States.

Coface Risk Monitor

If you need a detailed overview of the financial situation of future or existing business partners, then Coface Risk Monitor is the right product for you. It comes with a full Coface Business Credit Report, so you can choose your partners based on our financial information and assessments.

Parallel to this initial check we start the monitoring process and inform you about changes in up to 18 criteria. We make sure you do not miss deteriorations or any other important change, enabling you to make informed decisions on time.

Coface Default Monitoring

You only need a notification when your partner experiences payment difficulties? All you want to know is when your supplier or customer is filing for insolvency? The Coface Default Monitoring offer is what you need.

This service alerts you about any insolvency and similar proceeding or even debt collection actions taking place against your partners.

Your benefits

- Individual selection of monitoring criteria
- Immediate information on any changes via e-mail or directly into your systems via webservices
- Increased security through full Coface Business Credit Report with detailed financial analysis and immediate start of our monitoring service
- Price advantage compared to individual purchase of full report and monitoring for 12 months
